Tan's Long Voyage.
Seattle, Wash., Dec. 25.—The 300 ton tug Tyee, towing the disabled freight steamer Meteor, has arrived here after one of the longest voyages ever undertaken on the Pacific coast by a vessel of similar tonnage. Three months ago the Meteor, with coal and merchandise, left this port for St. Michael's. Within 100 miles of St. Michael's her machinery broke down, and she drifted helplessly until picked up by the Eureka and towed to Dutch Harbor. The Tyee was sent to tow the Meteor to Seattle, 2,500 miles. The little tug rode out the storm which wrecked the Nome steamer Discoverery.

A Schoolteachers' Union.
Moncton, N. B., Dec. 25.—The school-teachers of New Brunswick have formed a union and have agreed on a minimum scale of salaries. The constitution sets forth the objects of the union as being to aid the cause of education, to exalt the character and efficiency, to lengthen the period of service and to increase the salaries of teachers; also to render the profession more attractive and permanent, to secure laws beneficial to the profession and to improve the condition of teachers and schools.

Tammany's Idea of McAdoo.
New York, Dec. 25.—The appointment of William McAdoo as police commissioner is not just what a majority of the Tammany district leaders desired, but no general dissatisfaction was expressed at the wigwag. It was the general belief there that McAdoo will be liberal in the enforcement of the Sunday law and that Tammany will not suffer under his administration of the police department, although none of the leaders believes that he will ally himself with the gambling element that controlled the department.

ESTATE OF MERRILL PATTERSON.
STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, District of Washington, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 24th day of December, A. D. 1903.
William Wadsworth, Administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Merrill Patterson, late of the Town of Barre, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon it is ordered by the Court that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in said Montpelier on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon. And, it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in this state, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed and such decree made. By the Court. Attest:
